Who is Cluster-Funk anyway?

Cluster-Funk, the Double-Take Software band, is a rock 'n' roll band that will inspire you to groove. They play covers from the 70s through today and their musical brew blends bold, strident guitar power and cutting-edge jam sessions to create a medley that stands head and shoulders above your average cover band. Think Chili Peppers, U2, Sublime, Black Crows, and Neil Young to name a few. Maybe they'll even throw in some Pink Floyd for the occasion.
Check them out.
